V

Superior Court, Los Angeles County

(Herrera et al., r.p.i.)

The petition for writ of mandate is granted in part and denied in part. The petition is denied as to the first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, tenth and thirteenth causes of action in plaintiffs' first amended complaint; as to each of those causes of action, the demurrer was properly overruled. The petition is granted as to the ninth, eleventh and twelfth causes of action; and a peremptory writ of mandate shall issue directing respondent superior court to vacate its order overruling the demurrer to those three causes of action and to enter a new order sustaining the demurrer to each of those causes of action without leave to amend. The trial court is also directed in its new order to strike those portions of plaintiffs' first amended complaint in the first, third and fourth causes of action that seek civil penalties for violations of Labor Code provisions enumerated in section 2699.5. The parties are to bear their own costs in this writ proceeding.

Perluss, P.J.
